

... A new concept in hymnals

Today, it seems that worship resources are being designed for smaller and smaller niches: one particular type of music, theological perspective, or target group.

Lutheran Harmony has a different agenda. It's motivated by a belief that it is possible to be both orthodox and relevant, to be engaging and faithful, to be inclusive with out being negative. Not only is this possible, it is our urgent task.

Lutheran Harmony pursues that goal through quality content and a loose-leaf format that allows you to add your wisdom.

... Quality above category

It begins with hymns: a carefully chosen, diverse set of beautiful hymns - not selected by category, but for singability and substance. Lutheran Harmony has older hymns, newer hymns and alternative tunes for LBW hymns.

The initial release includes 40 hymns - not as many as the traditional "big book" but there's no dead weight here, you can use all of these hymns in your parish. Future releases will expand the book.

"I really appreciate John's eye and ear in selecting music - I trust his selections ... when you are inundated with a wealth of possibilities, its good to have someone do some sorting through for you." -- Rev. Karen Bockelman, Assistant to the Bishop, Northeastern Minnesota Synod, & Chair, ELCA task force on Sacramental Practices

"Fantastic: the music is appealing to a wide variety of folks." Rev. Bev Short, pastor, Zion Lutheran, La Porte City, Iowa

"Mr. Nordin has taken the time and interest to ask important questions of the user, choosing hymns old and new that best express the singer's heart, match the singer's ability, and shape the singer's theology. The integrity of Lutheran hymnody is celebrated in Lutheran Harmony." Katie Adelman, music director, Resurrection Lutheran, Plano, Texas & Director of Professional Concerns, Association of Lutheran Church Musicians

... Working together with you

Finding worship resources is a careful, time-consuming process. You find one hymn, you select one liturgy. No one resource, or one publisher, can have it all. Because Lutheran Harmony is in a sturdy, loose-leaf binder, you can add resources as you need, either permanently or for seasonal use. A page numbering system facilitates this process.

"We need flexibility to respond to the needs of blended worship and Lutheran Harmony represents the perfect resource to allow a congregation to use its own music and have maximum flexibility."

-- Rev. Kevin Murphy, pastor Christ Lutheran, Aptos, California, & noted speaker for youth events

... Helpful features

- v Larger, readable lyrics and music.
- v Full accompaniments included for all hymns.
- v Guitar chords placed on the melody line for 24 hymns.
- v Durable, heavy 6x9 paper.
- v Extensive indexing by Biblical text, season of church year, topic, images, doctrines, liturgical uses. This indexing - more than most hymnals - aids the worship leader in choosing the right hymn. Notes to the musician help in presenting each hymn at its best.

"John Nordin has compiled a wide variety of singable hymns in Lutheran Harmony that has something for everyone. ... The print is very clean and readable, and the notes to musicians in the indexes are a useful aid as well." - Anne Hoekstra, organist, St. John's American Lutheran, Cedar Falls, Iowa.

"Lutheran Harmony provides hymns that are singable, a format which is flexible and texts which maintain theological integrity for Lutheran worship." -- Bishop Steven Ullestad, Northeastern Iowa Synod
